Read Carefully

Any young woman, married or single, over 15 years of age, is eligible to compete, provided conditions set forth below are complied with:

Candidates must reside in the district or territory from which nominated. Candidates removing from this district or territory after being nominated will lose all votes received. No candidate will be permitted to transfer votes to another after receiving them for herself.

The right is reserved to withdraw the offer in any district where only one candidate is nominated or voted for.

Ballots sent in for names not properly nominated will be destroyed uncounted.

Every candidate must be regularly nominated on a blank printed in this paper, or a similar blank furnished by the Evening Bulletin.

Candidates may nominate themselves or their friends may do it for them. Names of candidates who have been nominated properly will be published every day, if possible, with the number of votes each candidate has received. If the name of the young woman you want to vote for is not in the list, nominate her properly when you send in your ballots, or before, if possible.

A coupon will be printed in this paper every day during the life of this contest, until further notice. This coupon will count for 10 votes. All coupons will be dated, and will be void unless received at the Evening Bulletin office on or before the expiration date as printed thereon. All ballots must be sent direct to the Contest Manager of the Bulletin, postage fully prepaid.

No employee of the Bulletin, or member of such employee's family, will be eligible as a candidate.

Any questions or controversies that may arise are to be settled by the Bulletin only.

In cases of ties, prizes equal in value with the prize tied for will be awarded contestants tying.

The Bulletin reserves the right to make any changes or additions to the above conditions that may be deemed necessary in the interest of the candidates.

In accepting nominations, all candidates must accept and agree to abide by the above conditions.
